Armstrong Junior College of Savannah, Ga., presents the Gleeche '43

Dedication

Many of Armstrong's graduates have been enlisted to help in the great task that lies before all freedom loving people.

Our alumni in service helped to build Armstrong. We hope that the years they spent at Armstrong have given them something in return—not only knowledge, but an understanding and a sense of honor which will help them to effect the end of the world struggle now in its critical year.

To date, Armstrong's alumni in service number two hundred and eighteen including both men and women, and it is to these that we, the editors, dedicate the 1943 GEECHEE.

—Editor-in-Chief,
Ken Wolfe

The Staffs of this year book have fought overwhelming odds to publish a book of the students, for the students. We hope that we have done so to the satisfaction of all persons concerned. We have tried to make it an annual that will help each and every student remember his or her cherished memories of Armstrong.

Informal snapshots used in this year book were submitted by Alvie Amith, Tom Cone, Floyd Pichler, Dr. Bishop, and Ken Wolfe.

The Inkwell, Armstrong's newspaper, is published monthly during the school year. Our first issue was during summer school and we have alternated between four and six page issues. In January '43 we published a special issue of six pages. This was one of our best years due to the untiring efforts of the Business Staff. Allen Douglas is Editor-in-chief and Alvie Smith is the Managing Editor.

The Inkwell, in carrying out the tradition set down last year, sponsored the Second Annual election of King and Queen of Armstrong. Allen Douglas and Virginia Cornell were crowned King and Queen at the waffle supper and dance held on February 12, 1943.

The Business Staff of the Inkwell, managed by Miss Rosa Smith, has done exceedingly well this year. Michael Gannam was Asst. Business Manager and upon Miss Smith's completion of her requirements for graduation he took over the management of the Business Staff. However, Mr. Gannam was called to the Service a few weeks after the beginning of the Spring quarter.

The sophomores of this staff sincerely hope that the business staffs of the future will keep up the good name that has been created for the Inkwell in the line of advertising.

The Student Senate, made up of representatives from various organizations in the college, is the governing body which passes all rules and regulations concerning the activities of the students. The Senate also acts in advisory capacity to the President of the college, making suggestions and giving him any information concerning student opinion that he might wish.

During the past year, through the efforts of the Senate, the "Nut" was reopened, under the management of the Home Economics Department, to serve students having to stay in the afternoons. Also, on March 26, 1943, a very successful dance and comedy show was sponsored by the Senate for the boys leaving for the service.

The main purpose of the Spanish Club is to create an interest in and learn about the language, people, and customs of the Spanish-speaking countries.

The meetings are held on the first and third Tuesdays at 4:30 every month, and topics of current interest concerning Latin America are discussed. We have had some very interesting speakers who spoke to us in Spanish, giving us the opportunity to hear and use the language that we are studying.

Mr. Beecher and Mr. Holland are the faculty advisors of the club.

Armstrong's musical component is ably supplied by the Music Club which meets every other week at the college to enjoy a program of recorded classical or semi-classical music.

This year the membership is striving to obtain a library of recordings and a listening room in which to keep it as well as its victrola. More than ever, the Music Club has been devoting time on its programs to the appreciation of selections played. This understanding has been forwarded by several members volunteering each week to plan the next program and its commentary.

The loan of records by Dr. Everett Bishop, Julian Bono, Jacob Lang, and Levy Jewelers, for which the club is grateful, has made possible the maintenance of high musical standards. Miss Mary Elizabeth Mayo, Armstrong's librarian, has rendered the organization encouragement by her competent sponsorship throughout the year.

The Armstrong Athletic Social Cub was organized by a few sophomores in an effort to continue the Monogram club of previous years.

Its purpose, to sponsor some and to participate in all social and athletic activities. One dance was sponsored by this club in the fall quarter and from this group of boys was drawn the nucleus of the college's basketball squad.

We hope that the boys that attain letters in a sport this year and that those remaining in college will carry on the traditions of the club.

The Council on Foreign Relations was organized under the co-leadership of Mr. Askew and Dr. J. P. Dyer in 1936. The present faculty advisor is Mr. W. O. Beecher. The aim of the council has been to further our understanding of world affairs through informal open discussions among its members and speakers at the various meetings. Throughout the year there have been several very interesting and enlightening speakers appearing on the program.

The purpose of this organization is to promote friendship among the members of the sorority and the students of Armstrong.

The sorority has endeavored to carry out this purpose through the sponsoring of many activities throughout this school year. Some of the activities sponsored were a Christmas dance honoring the new pledges of the sorority and also teas and tea dances. The girls gave Miss Mayo a farewell luncheon before she left for Virginia and also acted as hostesses for one of the regular Friday night dances. In the Spring quarter the sorority enjoyed several house parties at Tybee. The year's activities were brought to a suitable close with the usual banquet and dance.

The sponsor for the sorority is Mrs. LeRoy N. Suddath.

Captained by Tom Cone, the 1942—43 edition of A. J. C. Geechees came through with a fairly successful season considering the difficulties with which they were confronted.

Lacking a coach, the boys made up for this in eagerness and the desire to play the game.

The team and Manager Lawrence Sinclair were aided greatly by Prof. Reuben Holland, who gave his whole hearted assistance in every possible manner.

Entered in the Inter-City Service League, a fast and aggressive organization composed of local city and service teams, the Geechees finished in fifth place.

All through the entire season the basketekers of A.J.C. played with the same true spirit of the past Geechee squads, and it was this stamina that helped them to achieve a more successful season than pre-season critics anticipated.

The Armstrong Tennis Club was organized early in March. Many boys expressed the desire to play tennis, so a club was formed in which all those interested could participate. A tournament was drawn up for the purpose of choosing a team of five members from the club. Shortly before the tournament was played a number of men were called to the service. Among these were Lee Brewin and Robert Redmond who had shown promise.

At the completion of the tournament Tom Cone emerged victorious after meeting strong opposition from the other members of the tournament. The other players on the team in respective order were Fred Thigpen, Floyd Pichler, Roy Rabb, and Robert Ricks.

The Coronation

The second annual Coronation of the King and Queen of Armstrong was held on February 12, 1943.

Mr. Allen Douglas and Mr. Kenneth Wolfe planned a waffle supper as part of the celebration. The INKWELL financed the undertaking and, with the help of the Home Economics Club, the program was carried out very successfully.

After the waffle supper, a dance was held in the auditorium which was decorated with the school colors. Later in the evening, during their Grand March, the candidates for King and Queen marched onto the auditorium stage and the winning contestants, Mr. Allen Douglas and Miss Virginia Cornell, went up to their regal throne where they were crowned King and Queen of Armstrong, Miss Betty Smith, Queen of the Freshman class, presented a bouquet of flowers to Miss Cornell.

This is the first year that our yearbook has had a beauty section included among its other features.

Each club chose two candidates to enter the contest, and the candidates submitted their pictures to be judged.

The beauties were selected by the officers of the Coast Guard, namely: Lt. Hudson Edwards, Lt. C. T. Christiansen, and Lt. J. G. Wallace, serving in Savannah at the office of the Captain of the Port. According to the opinions of many, their judgment was very keen.

The winners are as follows.

HOW TO GET MORE OUT OF LIGHT

1. Keep bulbs and reflectors clean. Dust and dirt waste more light than you think.
2. Replace dark shades or shades that have turned yellow.
3. Arrange lamps and furniture so each lamp can serve two or more people if necessary.
4. When you buy a lamp bulb, buy carefully; be sure it's the right size to protect your eyes.
